

PSU Update

NHS
Health Education England

Developing people for health and healthcare

Specialist clinical communication skills and linguistic support

 For postgraduate medical and dental trainees holding a London and South East training number, post registration nurses, midwives (bands 5 to 8), allied healthcare professionals, pharmacists and paramedics

Please help us to pass on this information to those you feel may benefit and meet the *eligibility criteria.

Places now available for 1:1 and group sessions for clinicians, addressing individual learning needs for challenging conversations, assertiveness & resilience, issues of language and culture, personal effectiveness, exam performance stress and more:

Assertiveness in clinical practice
CASC exam practise
Challenging conversations in mental health care
CSA & AKT – exam preparation and mock exam (GPs only)
Developing your English for clinical practice
Enhancing your consultation skills
Exam preparation workshop
Resilience & assertiveness
Stress and exams
1:2:1 sessions – specialist communication skills and linguistic support

For dates, full details and how to book, visit the On-line store

Courses require a deposit- this is refunded after full attendance of the course. Further information here

For any further questions please email us commskills.lase@hee.nhs.uk

Kind regards

Specialist Clinical Communication & Linguistic Support
London and South East Professional Development Team

Health Education England

Stewart House | 32 Russell Square | London | WC1B 5DN

T: 020 7866 3128 (direct line)

E: commskills.lase@hee.nhs.uk

W: <http://www.lpmde.ac.uk/>

Stay up to date by following HEE on Facebook and Twitter