Publication Scheme – Guide to Information

January 2018
Part One: Introduction

What a Guide to Information is?
This Guide to Information is a complete guide to the information routinely published by East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust. It is a description of the information about our Trust which we make publicly available. We shall review this at regular intervals and monitor how it is operating.

It is important to us that this Guide meets your needs and we have designed it to be a route map so that you can find information about East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust easily. Under Section 19 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (there is a link to the Act in Part Three below), East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust has a legal duty to adopt and maintain a Publication Scheme and Guide to Information for the publication of Trust information. The purpose of the Act is to promote greater openness by public authorities (of which East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust is one).

1. Class 1: Who we are and what we do

East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust is part of the National Health Service (NHS). The NHS is a very large part of the public sector. A full list of NHS Trusts can be found at www.nhs.uk.

The work of the Trust is guided by the strategic direction established by the Department of Health. The Department of Health’s website can be found at www.dh.gov.uk and has links to the main national strategies for the NHS.

NHS Improvement provides support, oversight and governance for all NHS Trusts on their journey to delivering high quality care and treatment by working with Trusts and challenging and supporting them to find ways to improve performance, become more accessible to the diverse communities they serve, and ensure they spend taxpayers’ money wisely.

Their website www.improvement.nhs.uk is also a useful source of information about the wider NHS in our area.

The Trust also has a close working relationship with the Clinical Commissioning Groups for East Sussex which commission many of our services.

This will summarise the current performance of the Trust in a number of key performance areas including quality of care, access and finance. The Performance Report forms part of the Board papers and can be found on the Trust website at www.esht.nhs.uk

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) is the independent regulator of all health and social care services in England. Their role is to make sure that care provided by hospitals, dentists, ambulances, care homes and services in people’s own homes and elsewhere meets government standards of quality and safety.

3.3 Corporate Information
East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust routinely publishes a large amount of information. Documents that are published and are publicly available now, include:

- Annual Report
- Annual Quality Account

Documents guiding service development are available for the following areas:

1. Organisational Development Strategy
2. Risk Management Strategy

If you wish to find out more about the strategy documents produced by the Trust, please contact the Publication Scheme Co-ordinator.

Some of this information is of a personal and confidential nature and will be excluded as will any other confidential material. Material relating to the health and safety of specific individuals, as to law enforcement or criminal or regulatory enforcement or audit issues under certain circumstances may also be excluded from publication. There may be circumstances where material cannot be released because the appropriate officer of the Trust has taken the view that it may be prejudicial to the conduct of public affairs.

3.4 Governance
Governance is defined by the Audit Commission as “the systems and processes by which health bodies lead, direct and control their functions, in order to achieve organisational objectives, and by which they relate to their partners and the wider community”. These systems and processes relate to all areas of the Trust’s work, including Patient and Public Involvement, personnel issues and information management as well as clinical work.

3.5 Clinical Audit structure and process
Clinical Audit is a key and essential component of clinical governance. The function sits within the Clinical Governance directorate, the role and function being to ensure that robust audit informs all elements of clinical governance and quality improvement at divisional, specialty and corporate level.

All clinical audit projects are prioritised within the clinical specialties in accordance with the Clinical Audit Forward Plan. All specialties have lead audit clinician(s) identified, with multi-disciplinary audit meetings taking place on a regular basis. Regular reports are made to the specialty management teams. Audit proposals and reports are recorded on a central audit database which is accessible to staff through the Trust Extranet. The full database, including audit proposals and completed reports, has restricted access but the archive database is available to all staff. Anyone wishing to undertake an audit should request support from their Division’s Clinical Effectiveness Facilitator (CEF).

The CEF, using the audit protocol on the database, ensures robust methodology and clarity of purpose of the audit. On completion of the audit, a full report is submitted by the audit team to the CEF for circulation. The CEF will work with the audit team to ensure the report contains all of the necessary information required in order to conduct effective future re-audits – lessons learnt are highlighted, identified risks are forwarded to the Trust’s Risk team for follow up, conclusions are drawn and recommendations for improvement made. The associated audit action plan is regularly monitored and updated by the CEF. Where there is concern over the completion of an audit action plan, it will be taken to the Clinical Effectiveness Overview Group (CEOG) for action.

In line with best practice, junior doctors are encouraged to participate in clinical audit in consultation with their educational supervisors. On completion of a supported audit (a full report has been submitted to the CE team) a certificate is issued.

The Clinical Effectiveness Overview Group is chaired by the Assistant Medical Director (Quality) and its purpose is to monitor and review Trust Clinical Effectiveness activity (including clinical audit) and compliance indicators on a bimonthly basis and to assure the Board that evidence based practice has been implemented. The CEG feeds into the Trust’s Patient Safety and Quality Group and the Trust’s Audit Committee.

Aims of clinical audit programme at East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust

- To deliver demonstrable improvements in patient care
- To encourage evidence-based best practice
- To contribute to the process of continuing clinical education.

5.16 Data Protection & Caldicott Guardian
The Freedom of Information Act does not change the right of patients to protection of their patient confidentiality in accordance with Article 8 of the Human Rights Convention, the Data Protection Act and at common law. Maintaining the legal right to patient confidentiality continues to be an important commitment on our part.

All NHS organisations must have a Caldicott Guardian to ensure the protection of patient confidentiality throughout the Trust in accordance with your legal rights. The requirement for such a role within NHS organisations comes out of the Caldicott Committee’s report on the Review of Patient-Identifiable Information, published in 1987. Recommendations within this report centre on improving confidentiality and information security in NHS organisations.

The Caldicott Guardian within East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust is:
All NHS organisations are required to produce an annual report showing what has been done in line with Caldicott improvement plans. When this report has been produced it will be submitted to the Trust Board. A copy of the report can be viewed as part of the Board supporting papers or by contacting the Publication Scheme Co-ordinator.

5.17 Rights of Access to Information
At the present time, in addition to accessing the information identified in the Publication Scheme and Guide to Information, you are entitled to request information about East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust under the NHS Openness Code 1995. A link to this is available in Part 3 of the Scheme and hard copies are available free of charge from the Department of Health at:

The Department of Health
Richmond House
79 Whitehall
London SW1A 2NS
Tel: 0207 210 4850

Sometimes, some or all of the information cannot be provided and we will explain the reasons why not when this happens.

The Freedom of Information Act recognises that as a member of the public, you have the right to know how public services such as the NHS are organised and run, how much they cost and how you can make complaints if you need to. You have the right to know which services are being provided, the targets that are being set, the standards of services that are expected and the results achieved.

From January 1st 2005 East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust is obliged to respond to requests about the information which it holds and is recorded in any form and it will create a right of access to that information. These rights are subject to some exemptions which the Trust has to take into account before deciding what information can be released. The Guide to Information will help you to find all the information which the Trust publishes.

5.18 Clinical Records
Under the Data Protection Act 1998, you are also entitled to access your clinical records or any other personal information held about you. If you wish to find out more about this, please contact:
The Trust embraces the ‘being open’ framework and has embedded and continues to ensure this is addressed within our risk management and governance process.

5.19 Information Management
We have retention and disposal schedules, which comply with circular HSC1999/53 and Public Record Office Guidance. Information required for the business purposes of the Trust is stored at the Trust.

5.21 Re-Use of Public Sector Information
Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations give the public and the private sector the right to re-use public sector information which the Trust produces as part of its Public Task. The new Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015 came into force on 18th July 2015 and replaces the 2005 Regulations.

What are the RoPSI regulations?
The Re-Use of Public Sector Information (RoPSI) regulations govern the re-use of information created and used by Public Authorities in the UK as part of fulfilling their public task. Re-using the information means to use it for a purpose other than the initial public task it was produced for.

Access to the corporate information of Public Authorities is provided under Freedom of Information legislation. The RoPSI regulations do not change the provisions for accessing our information but provide the public and the private sector with a framework to re-use this information once it has been disclosed.

The RoPSI regulations are about encouraging the re-use of public sector information and governing how it is made available. Further guidance on the RoPSI regulations has been created by the ICO and the National Archives and links to this can be found on our website together with further information regarding the re-use of information provided by East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust.

What information is covered?
Public sector information is information which we produce as part of our public task. Our public task is our core roles and functions as defined by legislation and regulations. Information on our public task, such as the services we provide and our key functions, can be found in the About section of our website. Information which is not within the scope of our public task is not covered by RoPSI regulations. Information is not covered by RoPSI regulations if it would be exempt from disclosure under information access legislation like the Freedom of Information Act or the Data Protection Act.

How to make a request for re-use
If you would like to make a request for re-use under the RoPSI regulations you need to contact us in writing (preferably by email), include your name and address for correspondence, specify the information you want to re-use, and specify the purpose you intend to use it for. You can contact us by email esh-tr.foi@nhs.net or by post to the Freedom of Information Manager as previously detailed.
Costs and licensing

Please note that where East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust permits re-use of information under the Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015 it is licensed under the Open Government Licence.

East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust will, as a matter of routine, not charge for the re-use of information beyond reasonable disbursement costs (printing, postage, etc.) as per our Freedom of Information process.

Please note that East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust reserves the right to charge for re-use (such as where a small return on investment is reasonable) and to licence more restrictively where appropriate.

If our standard practice of allowing free-of-charge, Open Government Licence governed re-use will not apply to an application for re-use, this will be discussed with and communicated to the applicant as soon as it becomes apparent.
